

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Peter can't go to the game!

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When do you cancel plans?
- When do you decline requests?

Can Do Statements

- I can decline simple requests.
- I can express statements joined by and, but.
- I can talk about the weather and free time activities.

Let's Explore!

Peter invites John to a game, but John cancels. Let's find out why!

* To "cancel" means to refuse or decline an invitation to do something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Peter! Hey! What's up?
Peter: Hi! Can you come to the game tonight? We need another player.
John: Oh, about that ...
Peter: Uh-huh! What about it?
John: Unfortunately, I don't want to play. I need to cancel.
Peter: Oh! Is everything alright?
John: It's the weather. It's not very nice outside. It's raining a lot and there's a strong wind. I don't like to play in bad weather or when it's wet.
Peter: Oh, that's too bad.
John: I really want to go to the game, but not in bad weather.
Peter: I understand.
John: Well, thanks for the invitation.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Why does John cancel?
 - a. It's very nice outside.
 - b. It's not very nice outside.
 - c. It's raining a lot and there's a strong wind.
 - d. It's raining a lot and it's very wet, too.
 - e. He likes to play in bad weather.
 - f. He doesn't like to play in bad weather.

Let's Practice!

Can he? Can't he? You decide.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use but, Unfortunately, need to, really.

Tim: Can you come to the party tonight, Tom?

Tom: _____, I can't. I have to work.

Jane: There is a meeting today, Julia.

Julia: Yes, about that ... Sorry, I _____ cancel. I have to do something else.

Paul: Hey John. There's a big game at the park. You should come!

John: I _____ want to, _____ I don't like to be outside in the cold.

Extension Activity

Sorry, I Can't.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a dialogue (6 lines) making and declining a request to do a free time activity.
- Use modals to decline a request and respond.
- Join sentences with and, or, but.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write a dialogue declining an offer to do a free time activity.

☐ ☐

I use modals to decline requests.

☐ ☐

I join sentences in the dialogue using and, or, but.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- game (noun): a competition of a sport
e.g. Let's go to a hockey game tonight.
- soccer (noun): a sport played between two teams who try to kick a ball into the other team's goal e.g. Soccer is a popular sport all over the world.
- team (noun): a group of people who work together or play a sport
e.g. A soccer team has eleven players.
- to cancel (verb): to decide a planned activity or event will not happen
e.g. I cancel all my plans when the weather gets bad.
- unfortunately (adverb): used to say when something is sad and has a bad effect e.g. Unfortunately, the game is canceled because of the rain.
- wet (adjective): describes something that has water on it; it is not dry e.g. My coat is wet.
- wind (noun): air moving very fast
e.g. The wind is very strong today.
- to rain (verb): to fall from the sky, usually in the form of water e.g. It's going to rain tomorrow.

Learning Points

Declining Simple Requests

You use these phrases to politely refuse (say no) to a request. You respond with these phrases.

Decline a Request	Response
Unfortunately, I can't ...	Okay, no problem.
I really want to ... but ...	That's too bad.
Sorry, I can't.	I understand.

Examples:

• Peter: Can you help me tomorrow afternoon?

John: Unfortunately, I can't.

Peter: Okay, no problem.

Connectors: And, Or, But

Connectors are words you use to join words, phrases and sentences.

You use and to join two ideas.

You use but to show contrast or difference.

You use or to show two opposing ideas.

Look at the chart. Do you know how to use the three connectors?

Connector	Function	Example
and	join same ideas	Tom likes to watch and play sports.
or	show choice	You can take the bus or drive.
but	show contrast	John likes to watch the news, but he doesn't like to read the newspaper.

