Let's Start!

John calls a friend. What do they talk about?

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can exchange personal information.
- I can talk about free time activities.
- I can talk about the weather.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like warm weather or cool weather? Why?
- What do you like to do when it's warm or cold?

Let's Explore!

It's a beautiful day! John wants to go out and play a sport!

* You "play" some sports like volleyball, but you go swimming or jogging.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: ...
John: Is this 455-2134?
Peter: ...
John: Is this 455-2134?
Peter: ...
John: Is this Peter Smith?
Peter: Yeah.
John: It's John! Wake up, Peter! It's a beautiful day!
Peter: Yeah. It's nice and sunny outside.
John: The sun is shining. It's a perfect day to go for a walk, or play a sport. I love to be outside.
Peter: A walk sounds like a good idea on a day like this.
John: Do you have any plans for today?
Peter: Not really. Why?
John: Let's go to the beach. We can go for a walk, go swimming and play volleyball.
Peter: The beach? It's so hot!
John: No, it's not! The temperature is just right.
Peter: It sounds like a lot of fun, John. I'm tired. Can I stay home?

Let's Practice!

What do they say? Let's find out!

Learning Points

The Weather and Seasons

The weather is what it feels like outside.

You use It's ... with an adjective (describing word), to talk about the weather.

Seasons are a period of the year. Seasons in the Northern Hemisphere include:

Season	Months
Summer	June, July, August
Fall	September, October, November
Winter	December, January, February
Spring	March, April, May

Nouns and Adjectives Relating to the Weather	Examples
hot	It's so hot!
temperature	The temperature is just right.
perfect	It's a perfect day.
nice	It's a nice day.
sunny	It's sunny too!

Examples:

- Tom: What's the weather like in winter?
Susan: It's cold.
- Tom: Is the weather cold in spring?
Susan: No. It's cool and it rains.
- Tom: What's the weather like in summer?
Susan: It's hot!

Learning Points

Free Time Activities

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about free time activities. You do free time activities when you are relaxed. You don't do free time activities when you work.

Examples:

- I go to the gym.
- You play the guitar.
- He plays volleyball.
- We take Japanese classes.
- The children make model airplanes.
