Let's Explore!

Why is Richard a little embarrassed? Let's find out!

* "Embarrassed" means to feel awkward or ashamed.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Richard: Hi, can I ask you a question?
Sally: Sure, Richard. What is it?
Richard: Are you friends with Peter Simpson? He says you are his friend.
Sally: Peter Smith yes, not Peter Simpson. Why?
Richard: Hmm ... Is he slim and fit? Does he have brown hair? Peter is a nice person.
Sally: Yes ...
Richard: Does he like people? Does he go to parties?
Sally: Uh-huh ...
Richard: I think Peter is in my boring business class. He is smart and very funny. He's in my study group.
Sally: That's him! That's Peter! He's a business student.
Richard: Oh ... my mistake. Wrong last name. I am a little embarrassed! Peter's parents live next door to me!

Learning Points

Talking About People's Personalities

You use adjectives to describe a person's personality: how a person acts or behaves.

The word very shows how funny Peter is. Peter is very funny.

Adjective	Description
brave	a person who isn't afraid of danger
generous	a person who shares things with others
rude	a person with bad manners
funny	a person who makes people laugh
quiet	a person who doesn't talk very much
nice	a person who is kind to others

You use the Simple Present tense of the verb to be when you describe personality.

Form: subject + to be + adjective

Example: Peter is a nice person.

Examples:

- Peter is very nice.
- Sally is not a quiet person.
