

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Meeting new friends is fun! Let's talk about what they do.

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can exchange personal information.
- I can ask and talk about work.
- I can express statements joined by and, or.

Ask your partner:

- What do you say when you meet someone for the first time?
- What things do you talk about?

Let's Explore!

Natalie and Sally talk about their life. Who is a college student?

* "College" is the name for a type of school where students learn specialized skills.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Natalie: Hi. Is this the yoga class?
Sally: Yes, it is. Are you in this class?
Natalie: Yeah, I am.
Sally: I'm Sally, by the way.
Natalie: Nice to meet you, Sally. I'm Natalie.
Sally: Hi, Natalie. I'm a college student.
Natalie: Where do you study?
Sally: I study at Kingston College.
Natalie: Oh, cool. Do you like it?
Sally: I love it, but the assignments are difficult. What do you do? Are you a student, or do you work?
Natalie: I work for a company. I'm the secretary to the manager.
Sally: Do you like it?
Natalie: Well, the work is interesting. I enjoy helping my boss, and that is why I like my job.

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about work!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|----------------|----------------------|
| 1. Where do | a. Kingston College. |
| 2. I study at | b. you work? |
| 3. What do you | c. a company. |
| 4. I work for | d. do? |

Let's Practice!

Work or study? You decide!

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use work, and, where, manager, do, or. Use capital letters where necessary.

Jamie: _____ do you work?

Tom: Well, I both work _____ study at Kingston College.

Jamie: What do you _____?

Tom: I'm a _____.

Jamie: Is your work difficult _____ easy?

Tom: Well, sometimes my _____ can be difficult.

Extension Activity

Introduce yourself!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Interview someone about their work.
- Use Wh- questions like, "What do you do?" and "Where do you work?"
- Use vocabulary to talk about work.
- Use sentences with these connectors: and, or.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I ask what people do.

☐ ☐

I use work vocabulary to talk about work.

☐ ☐

I use and and or to join statements when I write about work.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- work (noun): things or activities that are part of your job
e.g. My work is difficult but interesting.
- to work (verb): to do an activity for money
e.g. Ana: Where do you work?
Tom: I work for a big company.
- job (noun): a regular activity a person does to make money
e.g. I have a new job at a company downtown!
- company (noun): an organization that sells goods or services to make money
e.g. I work for a big company in the United States.
- manager (noun): a person who organizes other people's work
e.g. I am the secretary to the manager.
- boss (noun): a person who manages people
e.g. I like helping my boss with the day-to-day work.
- secretary (noun): a person who works in an office and supports an organization
Example: My secretary types very fast.
- college (noun): a school where students get specialized skills or training usually after high school e.g. I study at Kingston College.

Learning Points

Asking and Talking About Work

You use Wh- questions words to get specific information.

You use what to ask questions about things.

You use where to ask questions about places.

You ask Wh- questions with the verb to be or with other verbs.

Use do or does with other verbs.

Question	Answer
What do you do?	I'm a secretary.
What's your name?	My name's Peter.
Where do you work? Where do you study?	I work at a big company. I am a student at Kingston College.
Where's your boss?	He's in his office.

Learning Points

And and Or

Use and to join words, phrases or sentences.

Use or to choose between things or ideas.

AND	Examples
nouns (people, places or things)	Peter and Sally are friends.
phrases (a small group of words)	on the table and under the chairs
sentences	I go to school in the morning, and I work in the afternoon.

OR	Examples
nouns (people, places or things)	Do you want tea or coffee?
phrases (a small group of words)	in the afternoon or evening
sentences	You can go to school, or you can get a job.

