Let's Start!

Peter and Vanessa are filling out forms. Why do they need the forms? Let's find out.

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can make simple requests.
- I can talk about work and college.
- I can exchange personal information.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of forms do you often fill out?
- What information is needed on forms?

Let's Explore!

Peter needs to fill out some forms. He asks Vanessa for help. What are these forms?

* To "fill out" a form means to complete a form by providing all the information that is required.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Vanessa, can I ask you something?
Vanessa: Sure. What's up?
Peter: It's those forms we need to fill out.
Vanessa: Which forms?
Peter: The scholarship form and forms for some jobs.
Vanessa: What about them?
Peter: Well, I'm not sure how to fill out some parts. Can you give me a hand? I need to send them with my résumé tomorrow.
Vanessa: Sure. How can I help?
Peter: What are professional goals?
Vanessa: You need to say what kind of job you want in the future, like in five years.
Peter: Oh! I'm a student now. I like my business class. I want to work in a large company.
Vanessa: There you go!
Peter: Thanks, Vanessa!
Vanessa: You're welcome!

Let's Practice!

Peter makes a request.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. What can Peter say?
 - a. Could help me, please?
 - b. Can you give me a hand, please?
 - c. Can you help me with these forms?
 - d. How can I help?
 - e. Can I ask you something?

Let's Practice!

Peter and Vanessa talk about professional goals.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use job, student, company, professional goals.

Peter: What are _____?

Vanessa: Let's see. You need to provide information about what kind of _____ you want in the future ... like, in five years.

Peter: Oh! I'm a _____ now. I like my business class ... I want to work in a large _____.
